

I would like to express my opinion that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has improved my private time at home because of the significantly reduced number of nuisance telemarketing phone calls. I hope you appreciate an individual's right to privacy and respect for personal family time without outside interruption via unwanted and unsolicited telemarketing and sales ploys. Please leave the Indiana Telephone Privacy law as it is today!